FIFTH ANNUAL CONSTRUCTION CAREERS JOB FAIR IS SATURDAY, APRIL 7

WICHITA, KS - More than twenty construction firms will be represented at the Construction Careers Jobs Fair on Saturday, April 7 from 9 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. at the Wichita Workforce Center, 2021 N. Amidon Ave., Suite 100. The event is hosted by the Wichita Workforce Center, the Associated General Contractors of America (AGC of Kansas) and the Wichita Regional Chamber of Commerce and is free for attendees. Registration is not required.

A few of the companies attending the Job Fair include: Cornejo & Sons, Eby Construction, and Build Pride. Job seekers should check workforce-ks.com/constructioncareers for more information and a full list of construction companies that are participating.

"The construction industry is important to the South Central Kansas economy," said Keith Lawing, president and CEO of Workforce Alliance. "The industry offers good paying jobs and we want to help them connect with qualified job seekers."

"This is the Fifth Annual Construction Career Fair. It continues to be beneficial to the construction companies in the area," said Cloys Bayless, Safety & Training Director at AGC of Kansas.

"Finding skilled workers is the number one issue that concerns our membership," said Gary Plummer, president of the Wichita Regional Chamber of Commerce. "We're pleased to work with AGC and the Workforce Alliance to address this concern on behalf of our members in the construction industry."
