

Are You a Host Agency?

What is SCSEP?

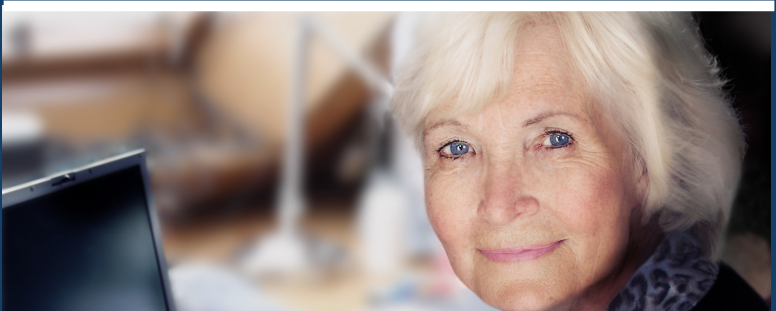

SCSEP is a federally funded job training program for unemployed, low income individuals 55 and older. Its goal is to help the older worker gain and perfect the job skills needed for today's workplace.

What are the benefits to you?

- No cost to you! All wages, while in the program, are subsidized by the SCSEP program
- Access to a pool of candidates for a wide variety of jobs
- Saves training dollars by providing loyal workers

What qualities do you get from our participants?

- Superior work ethic
- Loyalty to an employer
- Maturity in the workplace
- Flexible schedules
- Eagerness to learn new technologies

"Older workers are important to the development of a diverse workforce, which helps in serving a diverse customer base that includes many older people. They serve as role models for younger people and excel in such areas as customer service."
